Sport every day keeps the doctor away.

Sport is the best way to keep fit and be healthy. Extreme sports add adrenaline and strong positive emotions.

Rafting is the best sport ever. It is an outdoor activity that requires a boat or a raft and a brave sportsman. This sport is challenging but it is worth doing because it makes the body strong. Also, people who go rafting have an unforgettable experience admiring natural beauty. Rivers always have beautiful scenery and lots to see on their banks.

Speaking about sport in general, I would recommend exercising at the gym because there are good instructors to help you. They can tell you how to work out safely and achieve great results.

So, it does not matter what sport you do, it should be an important part of your life. Try every sport you get interested in.
