

INFORMATION FOR THE JLPT PARTICIPANTS

Please note: all participants will be sent an e-mail containing voucher downloading instruction, exam schedule, venue address and other important information no later than 10 days prior to the exam. In case you did not receive it, please contact SPbU Language Testing Center by the e-mail jlpt@spbu.ru or by phone +7 (812) 325 11 24.

What to bring on test day:

- identification document with a photo;
- printed voucher;
- HB pencil;
- eraser.

REGULATIONS FOR THE JLPT

1. Participants are allowed to enter the building 45 minutes prior to the start of the exam. We kindly ask you to arrive in advance. Latecomers are allowed to enter the test room during the first 10 minutes of the following sections:

- for N1 and N2 – Language Knowledge (Vocabulary/Grammar) & Reading
- for N3, N4 and N5 – Language Knowledge (Vocabulary); Language Knowledge (Grammar) & Reading

Please note that no examinee can be admitted for any reason after the CD has been started during the Listening section.

2. Participants must take their designated seats in the test room strictly according to their registration number, which is provided in the test voucher. Each seat will be marked with the last 5 digits of the registration number.

3. During the test, the examinees should place on their desks only:

- writing materials (pencils and erasers);
- a watch (digital watches are prohibited);
- the test voucher (face side up).

No other materials such as textbooks, dictionaries, mobile phones or notes may be used. Before the start of the exam mobile phones must be switched off and left in the designated place alongside the other personal belongings.

- 4. The examinees are not allowed to open question booklets and answer sheets until instructed.
- 5. In principle, examinees are not permitted to leave the test room during the test. However, if any examinee leaves the test room due to illness or other important reason, they must follow proctor’s instructions. The examinee who left the test room will not be given extra time. Keep in mind: if an examinee leaves the test room during the Listening section, he/she will not be able to continue the test although questions completed up to that point will be scored.

Please note that if there are sections, which an examinee does not attend, no points will be given for the entire test, including any sections, which the examinee completes.

6. Examinees can leave the test room during the recess between the sections of the exam. We kindly ask you to keep quiet in the building in order not to disturb the participants in other test rooms who are still completing the test. Examinees should return to their seats before the end of each recess.

MISCONDUCT

Examinees who have attempted to commit or have committed any of the misconduct listed below will be disqualified from the test and will have their test results invalidated:

- talking during the test, providing others with answers, or obtaining answers from other examinees; using a dictionary, textbook, reference book, crib sheet, earphone, mobile phone; writing answers in advance on the desk or writing equipment;
- taking the test with someone else's ID or using a fraudulent ID;
- refusing to follow the proctor's instructions;
- taking the question booklets and/or answer sheets outside the test room; taking photos of or copying the question booklets and/or answer sheets; making public any test content (including any of the recording from the CDs used in the Listening section) over the Internet or any other communication network;
- disturbing other examinees in any way;
- cooperating with someone committing misconduct listed above.

* An examinee whose mobile phone or watch sounds or vibrates during the test will also be considered to have committed misconduct. The examinee's test results will be invalidated and the examinee will not receive their test results.

We kindly ask you to keep in mind: it is strictly forbidden to make public any test content (answer sheets, test questions and answers to them, any recordings from the CDs used in the Listening section) over the Internet or any other communication network. Anyone who commits or cooperates with any of the above actions will have his or her test results retroactively invalidated.
