TEST OF RUSSIAN AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE
(TORFL)

LANGUAGE TESTING CENTER

Test of Russian

– It is a contemporary test of the Russian language for foreign citizens. TORFL is developed according to the best international standards of testing quality. There are 6 levels with growing difficulty, from Beginner (A1) to Advanced (C2).

– It includes 5 parts examining candidates' proficiency in different aspects of the Russian language usage: “Writing”, “Reading”, “Listening”, “Speaking” and “Vocabulary & Grammar”.

– It gives an opportunity to obtain a certificate issued by Russian governmental standards. This certificate is the only official document certifying levels of proficiency in Russian as a foreign language according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

St. Petersburg, 199034
Russia

Why do I need to take TORFL?

– Saint Petersburg State University (SPbU) is a leading Russian university with high educational standards. To apply for educational programs at SPbU, foreign citizens are obliged to certify their level of proficiency in Russian (level B1 is required for applying to BA programs; level B2 is required for MA programs):

– The TORFL certificate increases your chances to find a good job in Russia or abroad and to boost your academic career.

– The TORFL certificate not only shows your proficiency in the Russian language but also demonstrates your profound understanding of Russian culture, history and mentality.

The procedure of taking the examination

The test is conducted within two days. On the first day the “Writing”, “Vocabulary & Grammar” and “Reading” parts are carried out. The second day is devoted to the “Listening” and “Speaking” parts.

TORFL is conducted every week. To take the test you need to register for the selected date in advance.
